DATED: NOVEMBER 23, 2006

P.C.:

. This is an application for grant of leave to appeal against the order of acquittal. The learned trial Judge acquitted the accused ladies who were prosecuted under sections 305 and 306 of the Indian Penal Code for abetting the suicide committed by the victim Jayashree. In Paragraph 18, the learned Judge has given cogent reasons why the utterances made by the accused persons are not adequate to hold it to be an abetment. In our opinion, the interpretation put by the learned Judge on these utterances is correct. No interference is called for. Application rejected.
